Andreas & the Wolf

"The Freshest sound this side of Powder Ridge, even John Lydon would like it..."

Pete Jones (Bass) - PIL, Dept S, Brian Brain

Andreas & The Wolf is Electronica made flesh... Outsider Pop, marinated in past echoes, delivered in the now with futuristic sheen!

Our prime era of influence resides in the days when pop music was a perfect 3 minutes of 7 inch vinyl -The weird and the wonderful could make it onto top of the pops and be considered pop music. Things like Virginia Plain – Roxy Music, Get it on – T. Rex, Blue Monday – New Order, Ant Music – Adam and the Ants, Love Action – Human League, Ghosts – Japan, Wood Beez – Scritti Politi, O Superman - Laurie Anderson, Are friends electric? – Tubeway Army. The eclecticism of the TOTPs is what made it so good. We will produce outsider pop, 'til we drop - That is our raison d'être!

A&TW are a 4 occasionally 5 piece electronic band melding Post Punk, Glam, 80s synth pop, acid house and disco to create a unique style of twisted outsider pop.

Fatally Infused with Sc-fi and clad from head to toe in a skewed romantic reminiscence of classic pop.

We are no drum solos, Analogue synths, Reggae connotations, Eno sound splurge, semi-baritone space disco.

We are Exponents of Modern Retro Futurist POP. Dance music set to words.

We are Dystopiana - Stories within stories plundering such diversities as Goth, Disco and Post Punk. Lyrical reality cloaked in daggers.

We are the modern horror of existence... With a smile

We are space invaders.

We are a beautiful wolferine coagulation of juxtaposition - millennial twisters with cheeky tongues.

We are annoyed by the restriction death may impose on our creative ambitions

We are not going to be easy to pigeon hole!

We've just supported Red Snapper and Erotic Secrets of Pompeii on their UK Tours.

Our current Mixtape playlist would feature: Sparks, Soulwax, Pete Shelley, Cabaret Voltaire, Cabaret Nocturne, Nitzer Ebb, The Waeve, Prince, Hot Chip, Happy Mondays, Trentmoller, Lone Lady, Soft Cell, Joyce Simms, Wooze, Bowie, Port Sulphur and all things from The Creeping Bent stable, Hula, Fritz Catlin, Wolfgang Flur, Boney M, KLF, Primal Scream, Eno, Scritti, Human League, Das Koolies, Erotic Secrets of Pompeii.

We currently have 2 albums out in the world, with a 3rd due for release on 19th October 2024.

Some of our previous career highlights have included...

- Jump - Funkatarium, 90s club classic still a regular feature on BBC 6Music
- The Scratch - XFM Unsigned winners - played the 2007 Versus Cancer event at the M.E.N arena alongside The Charlatans, Noel Gallagher, Paul Weller, Echo and the Bunnymen. Endorsed by Clint Boon, John Robb, Marco Pirroni.
